

Stockton
Hertford vicinity
Perquimans County
North Carolina

HABS No. NC-83

HABS
NC,
72. HERF.V,
7-

PHOTOGRAPHS
WRITTEN HISTORIC AND DESCRIPTIVE DATA
District of North Carolina

Historic American Buildings Survey

Prepared at Washington Office
for Southeast Unit

HABS
NC,
72-HERF.V.
7-STOCKTON
Hertford vicinity, Perquimans County, North CarolinaOwner: Miss Sarah JohnsonDate of erection: c. 1850Present condition: FairDescription:

Frame; center block two stories, wings one. Roofs, gables, center block pedimental, forming an entrance portico with three tall Doric columns. Front wall has only center door in center block but two 6/6 windows above. Wings two bays, 6/6 sash, end chimneys.

Plan: center salon, one room each wing, cross hall and rear room behind salon. Simple trim of period.

Additional data:

Built by Granberry family and inherited by Major Lucius Junius Johnson of the Confederate Army.

Reference: Old Homes and Gardens of North Carolina, pl. 32

Author:                     Approved: